The Game of Life and How to Play It

What does it take to be successful in today's world? Successful people are not magically blessed or dramatically different, they have simply learned a new set of skills. Learn the skills and techniques you need, not just to survive in the game of life, but WIN in the game of life. Dale Smith Thomas will take you on a journey and share the "Secrets of Success" she learned, and how those secrets took her from a dirt road in Mississippi to stages around the word. Walk away with practical tools that can be immediately applied to your personal and professional life. This dynamic, empowering, educator will have you laughing and learning about winning in all phases of life.

The Association of Bankruptcy Judicial Assistants ("ABJA") is proud to present "The Game of Life and How to Play It" and "Unleash Your Power" by Dale Smith Thomas at 1:00 pm on Tuesday, October 12, 2004, at the downtown Doubletree Hotel, 315 4th Avenue North, Nashville, Tennessee. The registration fee for this two hour presentation is $75.00. You do not need to be a member of the ABJA to attend.

Anyone who meets Dale Smith Thomas recognizes that she is an unapologetic optimist and a woman whose passion for making a difference is stamped on every page of her life. Born and raised on a "dirt road" in rural Mississippi this inspiring, "real" woman shares her personal stories and challenges that will inspire you and empower you to make lasting changes in your own life. You will learn the secrets she discovered and how she took those secrets and became an international professional speaker and president of her own company. She not only wins hearts with her "I've known you all my life" personality but she touches lives with her honest, powerful messages.

Dale is a wife, mother, and businesswoman. She is an author, teacher, and spokesperson. She represented the state of Tennessee in an international competition and is a former radio personality. She has a degree in Education from Mississippi State University and was elected to serve as President of the Tennessee Speakers Association for two consecutive years.

She has hosted radio and television events and co-hosted a syndicated show with Dick Clark. She can now be seen in Nashville on the NBC affiliate with her segment, "Winning Choices For You." She will quickly say her heart and her "calling" is helping others make lasting changes in their lives. Her message and inspiration has touched more than 100,000 audience members worldwide and challenged them to push harder to achieve excellence.

Her unique style of presentation draws you in and captures your soul. She has a background in physical education but realizes she has a coaching job of a different nature now. She believes her life's work is to help others discover their potential, find their own answers and choose success. Whether an audience of 30 or 30,000 this empowering, entertaining, educational "southern" girl will leave you motivated and challenged to do more, be more and achieve more.
